

AAUW - Boulder invites you to learn about Human Trafficking & Modern-day Slavery

Trafficking in persons: the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harboring or receipt of persons, by means of the threat or force or other forms of coercion, of abduction, of fraud, of deception, of the abuse of power, or of a position of vulnerability or of the giving or receiving of payments or benefits to achieve the consent of a person having control over another person, for the purpose of exploitation. Exploitation shall include, at a minimum, the exploitation of the prostitution of others or other forms of sexual exploitation, forced labor or services, slavery or practices similar to slavery...

Brad Riley
Founder of Boulder-based iEmpathize

Working to expose and eliminate human trafficking and modern-day slavery

See Brad's powerful short film, "Shari's Story" about two teenage girls who were kidnapped in Toledo and taken to Detroit to be forced into prostitution. Following the film, Brad and members of the Southern Colorado Task Force on Human Trafficking will speak and answer questions. You will learn to recognize signs of Human Trafficking.

Saturday, January 21, 10:15 a.m. – 12 noon

Meadows Branch Library

4800 Baseline Road

In preparation for this meeting, you are encouraged to read Half the Sky, by Nicholas Kristof and Sheryl WuDunn, the first married couple to receive a Pulitzer Prize in Journalism.

The Denver Metropolitan area's intersection of I-70 and I-25 makes human trafficking and modern-day slavery a major concern for this area.

Please invite your friends to join you for this important meeting!
